

Archival Materials

Archival material relating to the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights can be found in the following locations:

1. City of Ottawa Archives

<http://ottawa.ca/en/liveculture/archives>

Content:

Papers relating to the work of the Board of Directors

2. Canadian Centre for Architecture (CCA)

<http://www.cca.qc.ca/en/search?query=Canadian+Tribute+to+Human+Rights>

Content: Mel Charney's winning design for a human rights monument, including drawings and maquette, submitted to the National Competition (sketches, drawings, photographs and model), as well as materials relating to the National Competition for the Design of the Canadian Tribute to Human Rights

3. University of British Columbia,

Xwi7xwa Library at The Longhouse, Faculty of Arts

<http://xwi7xwa.library.ubc.ca/>

Content: Files relating to the creation of the Aboriginal Language Plaques at the Monument